PROXY STATEMENT FOR 1999 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of Autodesk, Inc. (the "Company") for use at the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders ("Annual Meeting") to be held Thursday, June 24, 1999 at 2:00 p.m., local time, or at any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth herein and in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Annual Meeting will be held at The Embassy Suites Hotel, 101 McInnis Parkway, San Rafael, California. This Annual Meeting is the first to be held subsequent to the March 1999 business combination between the Company and Discreet Logic Inc. (the "Combination"). As a result of the Combination, all of the voting shares of the successor entity to Discreet Logic Inc. ("New Discreet") are held by the Company and its subsidiaries. Holders of non-voting exchangeable shares of New Discreet ("Exchangeable Shares") are entitled, through a voting trust described below, to vote at the Autodesk Annual Meeting.

The Company's principal executive offices are located at 111 McInnis Parkway, San Rafael, California 94903. The telephone number at that address is (415) 507-5000.

These proxy solicitation materials were mailed on or about May 25, 1999 to all stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

INFORMATION CONCERNING SOLICITATION AND VOTING

Voting and Solicitation

Every holder of shares of common stock of the Company ("Common Stock") is entitled to one vote for each share held as of the Record Date (as defined below). In addition, the holders of Exchangeable Shares issued in connection with the Combination have the right, as described below, to cast one vote for each Exchangeable Share held as of the Record Date.

Pursuant to a Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement dated March 16, 1999 (the "Voting Agreement"), the holders of Exchangeable Shares were granted certain rights, including the right to vote at meetings of the Company's stockholders. The Montreal Trust Company of Canada as trustee under the Voting Agreement (the "Trustee"), holds one share of Series B Preferred Stock of the Company (the "Special Voting Stock"). This share of Special Voting Stock entitles the Trustee to cast a number of votes at meetings of holders of Common Stock equal to the number of Exchangeable Shares outstanding as of the Record Date for each such meeting ("Exchange Votes"). Pursuant to the Voting Agreement, each holder of Exchangeable Shares is entitled to instruct the Trustee as to the voting of the number of Exchange Votes attached to the Special Voting Stock equal to the number of Exchangeable Shares held by such holder. The Trustee will exercise each Exchange Vote attached to the Special Voting Stock only as directed by a holder of Exchangeable Shares, and in the absence of instructions from a holder as to voting will not exercise such votes. A holder may instruct the Trustee to give a proxy to such holder entitling the holder to vote personally such holder's relevant number of votes or to grant to the Company's management a proxy to vote such votes. The Trustee has furnished (or caused the Company to furnish) this Proxy Statement and certain related materials to the holders of Exchangeable Shares.

The Common Stock and the Special Voting Stock will vote together as a single class at the Annual Meeting. Holders of Common Stock and Exchangeable Shares do not have the right to cumulate their votes in the election of directors.

The cost of this solicitation will be borne by the Company. The Company has retained Georgeson & Company, Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies at an estimated fee of $3,000, plus reimbursement of reasonable expenses. In addition, the Company may reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares for their expenses in forwarding solicitation material to such beneficial owners. Proxies also may be solicited by certain of the Company's directors, officers and employees, without additional compensation, personally or by telephone, telegram, letter, e-mail or facsimile.

Record Date and Shares Outstanding

The Board of Directors has fixed May 17, 1999 as the record date (the "Record Date") for determining stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Only stockholders of record as of the close of business on the Record Date are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the Record Date, there were 58,928,374 shares of Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting and 1,813,604 Exchangeable Shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting (through the exercise by the Trustee of its voting rights under the Voting Agreement) for an aggregate of 60,741,978 shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting (all shares being entitled to vote are referred to herein as "Shares" and all holders thereof being referred to as "Stockholders" of the Company).

Revocability of Proxies

Any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked by the person giving it at any time before its use by delivering to the Secretary of the Company a written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Quorum; Abstentions; Broker Non-Votes

The required quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting is a majority of the Shares outstanding on the Record Date. Shares that are voted "FOR," "AGAINST" or "WITHHELD" from a matter are treated as being present at the meeting for purposes of establishing a quorum and are also treated as being entitled to vote on the subject matter (the "Votes Cast") with respect to such matter.

While abstentions (votes "withheld") will be counted for purposes of determining both the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business and the total number of Votes Cast with respect to a particular matter, broker non-votes with respect to proposals set forth in this Proxy Statement will not be considered Votes Cast and, accordingly, will not affect the determination as to whether the requisite majority of Votes Cast has been obtained with respect to a particular matter.

Deadline for Receipt of Stockholder Proposals

Proposals of Stockholders which are intended to be presented by such Stockholders at the Company's 2000 Annual Meeting must be received by the Secretary of the Company no later than January 25, 2000 in order to be included in the proxy soliciting materials relating to that meeting.

All of the current directors attended seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the meetings of the Board of Directors and committees of the Board, if any, upon which such directors served during their term of office.

The Audit Committee consists of directors J. Hallam Dawson (Chairman), Mark Bertelsen and Mary Alice Taylor. The principal functions of the Audit Committee are to recommend engagement of the Company's independent auditors, to consult with the Company's auditors concerning the scope of the audit and to review with them the results of their examination, to review and approve any material accounting policy changes affecting the Company's operating results and to review the Company's financial control procedures and personnel. The Audit Committee held four meetings during fiscal year 1999.

The Compensation Committee consists of directors Crawford Beveridge (Chairman), Morton Topfer and Paul Otellini. The Compensation Committee reviews compensation and benefits for the Company's executives and administers the grant of stock options to executive officers under the Company's stock plans. In December 1995, the Board delegated to the Company's Chief Executive Officer authority to grant options to non-officer employees to the extent such options fall within standard guidelines previously approved by the Compensation Committee. The authority to grant all other options (except options which are granted automatically to outside directors under the non-discretionary 1990 Directors' Option Plan) has been delegated to the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee, which consists solely of outside directors ineligible to participate in the Company's discretionary employee stock programs, has sole and exclusive authority to grant stock options to officers and to directors who are also employees or consultants of the Company. The Compensation Committee held four meetings during fiscal year 1999.

The Nominating Committee consists of directors Morton Topfer (Chairman), Carol Bartz, Crawford Beveridge and Paul Otellini. The Nominating Committee has the responsibility to present a slate of nominees to the full Board prior to each Annual Meeting and to make recommendations regarding outside director compensation.

Compensation of Directors

The Company pays an annual fee of $25,000 to each director who is not an employee of or consultant to the Company (currently six persons), of which not more than fifty percent can be cash and the balance must be restricted stock issued at the rate of $1.20 worth of stock for each $1.00 of cash compensation foregone. Directors do not receive fees for Board or Board Committee meetings attended.

The Company's 1990 Directors' Option Plan provides for the automatic grant of nonstatutory options to outside directors of the Company. Upon being elected or appointed to the Company's Board of Directors, each outside director is granted an option to purchase 20,000 shares of Common Stock of the Company, with subsequent annual grants of 10,000 shares. Each Option granted under the 1990 Directors' Option Plan vests cumulatively as to one-third of the shares subject to the option on each anniversary of the date of grant, for a total vesting period of three years. The exercise price of options granted under the 1990 Directors' Option Plan is equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant.

Report of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Compensation Committee") is currently comprised of three non-employee directors. The Compensation Committee is responsible for establishing the policies and programs which determine the compensation of Autodesk's officers. The Compensation Committee sets base cash compensation and bonus compensation on an annual basis for the Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers of the Company. In addition, the Compensation Committee has exclusive authority to grant stock options to executive officers. The Compensation Committee considers both internal data, including corporate goals and individual performance, as well as external data from outside compensation consultants and independent executive compensation data from comparable high technology companies, in determining officers' compensation.

Compensation Philosophy

When creating policies and making decisions concerning executive compensation, the Compensation Committee:

- . Ensures that the executive team has clear goals and accountability with respect to corporate performance,
- . Establishes pay opportunities that are competitive based on prevailing practices for the industry, the stage of growth of the Company, and the labor markets in which Autodesk operates,
- . Independently assesses operating results on a regular basis in light of expected Company performance, and
- . Aligns pay incentives with the long-term interests of the Company's stockholders.

Compensation Program

Autodesk's executive compensation program has three major components, all of which are intended to attract, retain and motivate highly effective executives:

1. Base salary for executive officers is set annually by reviewing the competitive pay practices of comparable high technology companies. Local (San Francisco Bay Area), national, and, for international executives, foreign country data are examined and taken into account, along with the skills and performance of the individual and the needs of the Company.
2. Cash incentive compensation is designed to motivate executives to attain short-term and longer-term corporate, business unit and individual management goals. The actual annual cash bonuses received by an executive depend upon attainment of these specified business goals. The formula for incentive bonuses for fiscal year 1999 was based on the achievement of certain revenue growth and operating margin targets, together with the attainment of corporate goals. It is the intention of the Compensation Committee in fiscal year 2000 to continue this linkage between the achievement of specific financial targets and corporate goals, and the payment of incentive cash compensation, for officers and other executives in the Company.

3. Equity-based incentive compensation has been provided to employees and management through the Company's stock incentive plans. Under these plans, officers, employees and certain consultants to the Company are eligible to be granted stock options based on competitive market data, as well as their responsibilities and position in the Company. These options allow participants to purchase shares of Autodesk Common Stock at the market price on the date of the grant, subject to vesting during the participant's employment with the Company. Employees are also permitted to purchase shares of the Company's Common Stock, subject to certain limitations, at eighty-five percent (85%) of fair market value under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan. The purpose of these stock plans is to instill the economic incentives of ownership and to create management incentives to improve stockholder value. The Company's stock option plans utilize vesting periods to encourage employees and executives to remain with the Company and to focus on longer-term results.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

In determining Ms. Bartz's compensation for the fiscal year ended January 31, 1999, the Compensation Committee reviewed industry surveys of compensation paid to chief executive officers of comparable companies, with a focus on those companies located in the San Francisco Bay Area, and evaluated achievement of corporate individual objectives for the fiscal year. Ms. Bartz's annual base compensation for fiscal year 1999 was $600,000. Like other executive officers, Ms. Bartz was eligible to receive an incentive bonus determined on the basis of (i) the Company's revenue growth and operating margin and (ii) the achievement of specific corporate goals. Ms. Bartz received a bonus of $800,000 for fiscal year 1999. She received an increase in base salary for fiscal year 2000 to $700,000. Ms. Bartz was granted an option to buy 60,000 shares of Autodesk stock in March 1998. We believe it is critical to the Company's long-term success to continue to tie the Chief Executive Officer's incentive to the Company's performance and to align individual financial interests more closely with those of stockholders.

Other Executive Compensation

Autodesk provides certain compensation programs to executives that are also available to other Company employees, including pre-tax savings plans and medical/dental/vision benefits. There are no pension programs except where prescribed by law in countries other than the United States. The Company generally does not provide executive perquisites such as club memberships. In fiscal year 1998, the Company introduced a Deferred Compensation Program for executives.

Deductibility of Executive Compensation

Beginning in 1994, the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") limited the federal income tax deductibility of compensation paid to the Company's chief executive and to each of the other four most highly compensated executive officers. For this purpose, compensation can include, in addition to cash compensation, the difference between the exercise price of stock options and the value of the underlying stock on the date of exercise. The Company may deduct compensation with respect to any of these individuals only to the extent that during any fiscal year such compensation does not exceed $1 million or meets certain other conditions (such as stockholder approval). Considering the Company's current compensation plans and policy, the Company and the Compensation Committee believe that, for the near future, there is little risk that the Company will lose any significant tax deduction relating to executive compensation. If the deductibility of executive compensation becomes a significant issue, the Company's compensation plans and policy will be modified to maximize deductibility if the Company and the Compensation Committee determine that such action is in the best interests of the Company.

Employment Contracts and Certain Transactions

In April 1992, the Company entered into an agreement with Carol A. Bartz which provides for a minimum base salary of $400,000, incentive bonus of up to eighty percent of base salary, a one-time employment bonus of $250,000 (to compensate for a foregone bonus) and the grant of options to purchase 2,000,000 shares (as adjusted to reflect the October 1994 two-for-one stock split) of Common Stock vesting over five years of employment. The agreement provides for a severance payment equal to two years' base salary and incentive compensation in the event Ms. Bartz's employment is terminated without cause within two years after commencement of employment or one year after a change of control of the Company not approved by the Board of Directors or two years' base compensation in the event Ms. Bartz's employment is terminated without cause under any other circumstances.

Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership on Form 3 and changes in ownership on Form 4 or 5 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and the National Association of Securities Dealers. Such officers, directors and ten percent stockholders are also required by SEC rules to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms that they file.

Based solely on its review of copies of such reports received or written representations from certain reporting persons, the Company believes that it complied with all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its officers, directors and ten percent (10%) stockholders during the fiscal year ended January 31, 1999.
